

Wednesday, March 14, 2018
9:30 -11:30
Cannon Township Hall
6878 Belding Rd, NE 49341

I. Guest introductions

II. Review, approve minutes from regular meeting, February 14, 2018

III. Reports:

- A. financial statement
- B. report from GVSU website team
- C. letter in The Squire
- D. Trout Unlimited Home Rivers Initiative
- E. Update on environmental legislation in MI

IV. Discussion item:

Flooding in the watershed: causes, controls, prevention, local ordinances, stormwater practices, areas vulnerable to run-off... Also, brain storm about what the RRWP can do to make flood control and run-off issues a priority for municipalities and ordinary citizens in the watershed.

V. Upcoming Events: Two Tuesday Talks, 6:00

- A. March 27, Cedar Springs Brewery: Molly Rippke, aquatic biologist, will talk about E-coli
- B. April 24, Cellars Brewery, Sparta: conservation practiced by farmers in the watershed.
- C. May 5, Stream insect monitoring: Rockford Community Cabin, 9-1

VI. Calendar: May: IRS 990-N report due